

Postgraduate History and Heritage courses

Explore, research and discover the world of History and Heritage

Covering British, European and world history, as well as many aspects of heritage, you'll have the opportunity to work with our leading historians and experts in a world-renowned department. Build your understanding as you study your discipline's complexities and diversities. We work across departments from anthropology to art history and sociology to literary studies to broaden knowledge and create a stimulating, challenging place to learn. As you develop your research skills into the past, you'll look forward to the future. From further research to careers in education, government and the heritage industry – we'll prepare you for the next step.
