Student advice and support

We're here to guide you and support your needs

Whoever you are and wherever you come from, we are committed to providing the best possible support to all of our students, both before you start and throughout your time on campus, so that you can get the most out of your university experience.

Coming to university is a big life change, and you may feel the need for a little more support during your transition. Whether you're feeling stressed about your workload or worried about a situation at home, need help with your study skills or financial advice, there is lots of support available to you at Birmingham. No problem is too big and no worry is too small for our team of experts, and there are a range of services so you can choose the one that best suits your personal needs.
